Church family news

Grateful people in Rwanda: I spent the first three weeks of June working with the Anglican Church in Rwanda. My brief was working with the rural development and community transformation department. This involved training sessions in rural areas which were all well attended with over 150 people in total. I also assisted with Saturday workshops for school teachers, plus some advice on land use. The rural poor who came to the training sessions were very grateful for the support provided by Woodlands for a mid-day meal. This was my first visit to Rwanda, a nation recovering from the 1994 genocide, yet a place where the church is growing and expanding rapidly and enlarging or erecting new buildings, as many people come to faith in Jesus. For more feedback or information do ask me. George Case.

Dishes leftover from BBQ: Thank you for all the contributions of food at the BBQ. Please can you make sure you collect your dishes from the kitchen.

QUOTE, UNQUOTE: "Free porn accessed on a smartphone represents a spiritual epidemic of unprecedented gravity in the history of the church, costing a whole generation of young Christians their joy in Christ and corroding young souls by the acid of unchecked lust"
